Nose and Palate 3drops 2019 Great Southern Pinot Noir has an elegant nose of wild strawberries, red and black currants, and a hint of savouriness.

On the palate, it's juicy and succulent with a fine tannin structure, smooth and creamy texture, and a lively spiciness on the finish. The high-quality French oak is in the background and integrates beautifully with the fine tannin structure.

Ready to drink now, or you can cellar it over the next 8-10 years to further develop those savoury, earthy characters.

If wining and dining, we'd recommend matching our Pinot with grilled salmon, braised duck or an afternoon of cheese, charcuterie, and good company.
